*Senior Programme Officer: Blue
Economy
African Union Development
Agency (AUDA-NEPAD)*

Dr. Bernice McLean is a marine policy specialist with a strong interest in sustainable fisheries management and aquaculture development and their contribution to Africa's food systems and blue economy development.

Bernice has worked with the African Union Development Agency (AUDA-NEPAD), since 2016 and is currently leading the Blue Economy Unit in the Agriculture, Food Systems and Environmental Sustainability Directorate.

Her role includes providing technical support to AU Member States, Regional Bodies, non-state actors and other stakeholders in areas of sustainable and equitable Blue Economy development. This includes developing and implementing key flagship initiatives to foster equitable socio-economic growth and showcase learning and innovation in key blue economy sectors.
